THE FAMILY OF LYMAN F. TALLMAN

June D. Brown, Stafford, Texas

1. Lyman F. Tallman was born 19 May 1810 in New York (probably the town of Minerva in Essex County). He died in Washtenaw County, Michigan, 1 March 1860, age 49 years, 10 months, 20 days [DAR Vital Records, p. 209] and was buried there in Vermont Cemetery in Sylvan Township [cemetery stone]. Lyman was probably a son of Abner Tallman who is found on the 1820 census as living in Minerva, Essex County, New York [National Archives Series M33, Roll 69, p. 22, hereafter NA].

Lyman's first appearance as head of household was on the 1840 census for New York, where he was listed as living in Orangeville, Genesee County [ibid, Series M704, Roll 286, p. 160]. The previous decade's 1830 census enumerated Abner Tallman in this same place, and listed a son in Abner's household who was the right age to be Lyman. Abner Tallman and his next door neighbor David Tallman, who is probably also Abner's son, are the only Tallman families listed in Orangeville in 1830 [ibid, series M19, roll 90, p. 227] and Lyman is the only Tallman listed there in 1840. Although Abner Tallman is the most likely candidate to be Lyman's father, no documentation to that effect has yet surfaced. Other Tallman families living in nearby Castille Township seem to be well accounted for, and no direct link to either Abner or Lyman has been found. Orangeville became part of Wyoming County in 1841.

Lyman married Polly Maxon about 1837. Polly, a nickname for Mary, was born in New York 8 August 1820. She died in Lima, Washtenaw County, Michigan, 17 November 1904 and was buried in Sylvan Township's Vermont Cemetery next to Lyman [Washtenaw County Vital Records, Liber 3, p. 111, hereafter WCVR]. The 1900 census enumerated her living in the Lima Township household of her daughter Harriet (Tallman) Jenks and son-in-law Charles Jenks [NA Series T623, Roll 746, p. 108]. Polly was the daughter of John and Lydia (Sweet) Maxon. John was a veteran of the War of 1812 and was drawing an invalid's pension for a debilitating wound received in the Battle of the Sortie on the Batteries of Ft. Erie in Canada [NA, Washington D.C., Pension File #26254, John Maxon, hereafter PF Maxon].

On 6 May 1842, Lyman sold fifty acres of land in Wyoming County's ninth township, Sheldon, to his brother-in-law Daniel S. Maxon of Attica, son of John and Lydia (Sweet) Maxon. The deed was recorded on 12 May 1842 at 11am [Wyoming County Clerk's Office, Warsaw, NY, Deed Book 3, p. 89]. His final land transaction in New York took place on 2 August 1848 at which time he sold fifty acres of land in Sheldon to John Standish. This deed was recorded at 2:30 on the afternoon of 5 August 1848 [ibid, Deed Book 12, p. 106]. No record of when the land was first purchased by Lyman was found. He may have inherited it from his father, but no will or probate for Abner was found. Lyman and Polly removed from New York to Michigan soon after the land was sold. He was listed on the 1850 census as living in Sharon, Washtenaw County, Michigan. The household consisted of Lyman Tallman, wife Polly, children John, Mary, Percy, Jonathan, Jane, and Polly's mother, Lydia Maxon, age 62 [NA Series M432, Roll 364, p.791-2].

On 21 April 1853, for $150.00, Lyman purchased 160 acres of land in Sharon from Polly's brother, Strafford Maxon of Elkhart, Indiana [Washtenaw County Register of Deeds, Lib. 38, p. 140, hereafter WCRD]. This was part of 320 acres of land which John Maxon had originally purchased in 1837 [Bureau of Land Management, Springfield, VA, Certificate #22424]. This same land, minus a few parcels that had been sold off earlier, was sold to Barnhard Oker 16 January 1883 for $1,800 by Lyman Tallman's heirs, named on the deed as Polly Tallman, widow, and John M. Tallman, Harlen Tallman, James Tallman, Persis A. Parsons, Jane Luttenbecker, Harriet Jenks, Olive Tallman, and Ida Tallman [WCRD Lib. 107, p. 260]. At the bottom of the deed is a notarized statement from the State of Colorado, County of Arapaho, dated 13 February 1883, swearing to the authenticity of the person and signature of John M. Tallman.

Polly's mother, Lydia (Sweet) Maxon, was enumerated with Lyman's family on the 1850 and 1860 censuses in Lyman's household. She was also counted in the 1850 household of her son and Polly's brother Friend Maxon in adjacent Jackson County. It appears she moved back and forth between the two households. Her age was given on the 1860 census as 72, so was born about 1788; her birthplace given as New York [NA Series M653, Roll 563, p. 350]. Lydia died 1 December 1861 and her husband John Maxon died on 22 August 1864 [cemetery stones]. Lydia and John are buried next to Polly and Lyman in the Vermont Cemetery located on the corner of Route 52 and Jerusalem Road in Sylvan Township.

The years 1860 through 1864 were difficult times for Polly. She lost her husband, her mother and her father in a relatively short period of time, leaving her to raise alone her six younger children ranging in age from fifteen to just four years. For the 44 years following Lyman's death until her own death in 1904, Polly was the matriarch of the Tallman family in the true sense of the word.

Polly was listed as head of household living in Sharon on the censuses for 1860, 1870, and 1880. By 1870, the family was considerably reduced in size. The census listed Polly and children Olive and James. Lydia was no longer with the family, having died in 1861. Polly's sons, John, Jonathan, and Harlan had gone west to Colorado. By the taking of the 1880 census for Washtenaw County, Harlan had returned home to Sharon and was living with his mother, Polly, as head of household, sister Olive, his new wife Ida, and their son Alfred, age one month [NA Series T9, Roll 609, p. 316]. After the 1883 sale of the family farm in Sharon, Polly moved to Lima and resided with her daughter Harriet until her death in 1904.

Children of Lyman and Polly (Maxon) Tallman:

2. John Maxon Tallman, b. 25 Apr. 1837, Genesee Co., NY
3. Mary (Polly) Tallman, b. May 1839, Genesee Co., NY
4. Persis A. Tallman, b. 11 Sep. 1842, Wyoming Co., NY
5. Jonathan H. Tallman, b. Jan. 1844, Wyoming Co., NY
6. Jane Tallman, b. 26 Sep. 1846, Wyoming Co., NY
7. Harriet Tallman, b. Sep. 1850, Washtenaw Co., MI
8. Olive Tallman, b. May 1853, Washtenaw Co., MI

9. Henry Arlan Tallman, b. 1855, Washtenaw Co., MI
10. James L. Tallman, b. 21 Sep. 1856, Washtenaw Co., MI

2. John Maxon Tallman, named after his maternal grandfather, was born 25 April 1837 in Genesee County, New York, which in 1841 became part of Wyoming County. He was the oldest of the Tallman children when the family traveled westward about 1848 and settle in Sharon, Washtenaw County, Michigan. Early in 1859, John, not yet 18 years old, headed further west and settled near Cherry Creek in Douglas County, Colorado, where he made his living driving freight teams in the area east of Denver [The Colorado Genealogist, Vol. 3, No. 6, Mar. 1942, p.73, hereafter TCG].

He met and fell in love with Elizabeth J. Pennock. On 1 December 1865 [Douglas Co. Mar. Rec., Vol. 1, p. 5], he took Elizabeth to a dance at the grange hall, and following the dance they rode over to Russellville, where they took their vows [TCG, Vol. 3, p. 73]. Elizabeth was born 4 July 1841 in Ossian, Livingston County, New York, the daughter of Oliver and Caroline (Rowell) Pennock [TCG, Vol. 2, p. 67].

On 17 January 1868, John filed homestead papers on the land he was living on near Parker [Warrant No. 87.241, Homestead Deed, Denver Land Office] and bought some cattle. His younger brothers Jonathan and Harlan left Michigan and their family behind and came west to join John on his ranch. Jonathan was a veteran of the Civil War and Harlan just a young lad around 14 years of age. The 1870 census for Douglas County listed John's post-office address as Bijou Basin. He was enumerated on this census with his wife Elizabeth, nine-month-old son Charles, and his brother, fifteen-year-old Henry A. (Harlan) Tallman *[NA Series M593, Roll 94, p. 220]. I*n the spring of 1870 Jonathan was killed by the Indians and scalped. Harlan, perhaps disheartened by the violence of his brother's death, returned to Michigan.

In 1879 John sold his ranch in Parker to William Newlins [Douglas Co. Deed Book G, p. 567] and moved to Castle Rock, where he was enumerated on the 1880 census for Douglas County as a dry goods merchant [NA Series T9, Roll 90, p. 13]. Sometime before 1885, John's widowed sister Jane (Tallman) Luttenbacher came to Colorado and stayed with them, as she is enumerated in their household on the 1885 Colorado State Census [NA Microfilm #158, Roll 3, p. 13]. While there, Jane met and married Hiram Goodwin. They later moved to Laredo, Texas.

John and Elizabeth moved to Colorado Springs, El Paso County, and lived for a period of time with their niece Addie E. Perkins, in whose household they were enumerated on the 1920 census [NA Series T625, Roll 163, Vol. 17, ED 97, Sh 3, Ln 26]. At the time of John's death in 1925, their address was 231 N. Walnut Street.

John M. Tallman died of pneumonia 9 December 1925 at his home in Colorado Springs at 11:10pm [Colorado Vital Records, District #69, Register #624, Death Certificate #11762]. His body was brought back to Douglas County and he was buried in Parker Cemetery. Elizabeth moved back to Castle Rock after John's death. When she died on 7 March 1941 she was almost 100 years old. She was buried next to John in Parker Cemetery.

Children of John M. and Elizabeth J. (Pennock) Tallman:

i. Charles Strafford Tallman, b. Sep. 1869, Douglas Co., CO
ii. Mary Ellen Tallman, b. 2 Mar. 1871, Douglas Co., CO

3. Mary Tallman, nicknamed Polly like her mother, was born May 1839 in Genesee County, New York. She grew up in Washtenaw County, Michigan. On 11 August 1860 she married Hozra H. Huntley in Washtenaw County [LDS IGI]. By the 1900 census Polly was a widow running a boarding house in Hartford Village in Van Buren County. Polly and Hozra had three children before he died [NA Series T623 Roll 745, p. 201].

4. Persis A. Tallman was born 13 September 1842 in Wyoming County, New York. She grew to young womanhood in Washtenaw County, where she married her 1st husband, Francis S. LeBaron on 4 July 1861 [NA, Washington D.C., Pension File of Francis S. LeBaron, hereafter PF LeBaron]. Francis enlisted on 4 August 1862 at Chelsea as a private in Company K, 20th Michigan Infantry and left Jackson 1 September 1862. On the 9th day of May, 1864, Francis was present at the Battle of Spotsylvania Court House and was "wounded by a missile from the enemy in the left arm, causing the loss thereof and preventing him from manual labor." The Army surgeons amputated the "middle 3rd arm." He was given an honorable discharge from the service at Detroit on the 15th of December 1864. His Certificate of Disability for Discharge, included in his Pension File, describes Francis as having been born in Saline, New York, age 21 at the time of discharge, 5 feet 9 inches tall with light complexion, blue eyes and sandy hair [PF LeBaron].

On 16 December 1864, Francis applied for an Invalid Pension at a sitting of the Wayne County Probate Court in Detroit. Just one year later, Francis died on 25 December 1865 at the age of 25 years and 1 month of diarrhea and consumption contracted while a soldier [PF LeBaron] and was buried in the Sharon Center Cemetery in Sharon Township Persis, accompanied by her brother, went to the Jackson County Courthouse on 24 June 1866 where she applied for a widow's pension, giving her age as 23, explaining the circumstances of her marriage to Francis LeBaron and stating that he left no surviving children. Her brother, Jonathan H. Tallman, and her uncle, Friend D. Maxon, both of Waterloo, Jackson County, signed her declaration. Her declaration was accompanied by a signed and sealed statement from Edmund Young, Minister of the Gospel, testifying to the fact that he had married young Francis LeBaron and Persis A. Tallman on the 4th of July 1861 in the presence of Persis' mother, Mrs. Polly Tallman and Sulivaris LeBaron [PF LeBaron].

As her second husband, Persis married on 3 August 1866 in Chelsea Township Alfred D. Parsons, son of Chester and Deborah (Maben) Parsons. Alfred was born in 1830 in Saline, Washtenaw County, Michigan. He had married first Lavina R. Gilbert, daughter of Luke and Ruth (Waite) Gilbert [LDS IGI]. Lavina died 25 January 1866 and was buried in Benton Cemetery in Saline Township, the same cemetery where her mother Ruth was buried [Cem. Rec.]. Persis' brother Harlan married Ida Parsons, the first born child of Alfred and Lavina (Gilbert) Parsons and therefore was Persis' step-daughter. In short, Persis was her sister-in-law's step-mother. Alfred was made administrator of the estate of his son-in-law Harlan Tallman when Harlan died suddenly in 1884 and spent the next two years settling the affairs of his daughter's late husband [Probate Rec., Washtenaw Co.].

Alfred and Persis were enumerated on the 1894 Michigan State Census as living in Ypsilanti. In 1896, the Parsons were living at 213 Ballard Street in Ypsilanti. In 1899 their daughter Lovina married Albert R. Farquer of Carrington, North Dakota, at her parents' home on Adams Street. Sometime in 1900, Alfred and Persis moved again, this time to Fessenden, North Dakota. On a visit back to Chelsea, Michigan, Alfred died of apoplexy on 17 February 1908 and was buried in Highland Cemetery in Ypsilanti [Highland Cem. Rec., Ypsilanti].

A widow once again, Persis filed a claim to have her pension restored on 25 June 1908, giving her address as No. 91 Oakwood Avenue in Ypsilanti and her age as 65 years. She stated "she had no property and no income aside from her daily labor and no one legally bound to render her any part of a support." The form was attested to by Alfred's sister Melissa E. Fellows and her husband Charles M. Fellows. Persis' pension, Widow's Certificate #114632, was restored to her in August of 1908 and she continued to draw a pension until her death. She was receiving $50.00 per month and the last pension payment, dated 4 June 1927, was addressed to her in Wagon Mound, New Mexico. Persis died there 5 June 1927. Her body was brought back to Washtenaw County, Michigan, and she was buried near her husband Alfred in Block 12, Section West Half, Lot 3 of Highland Cemetery in Ypsilanti [Highland Cem. Rec., Ypsilanti].

SCHOOL CENSUS OF FREEDOM TOWNSHIP, DISTRICT NUMBER TWO, WASHTENAW COUNTY, MICHIGAN, 1885

Nancy H. Krohn

This census lists students from Freedom Township, District Number Two in Washtenaw County, for the five month term commencing 10 November 1884 and ending March 27, 1885. The whole number of days taught was 100 with 72 students enrolled. Subjects taught included Geography (5 students) and U.S. History (6 students). Textbooks were listed, and much statistical information was given. Questions about the subject matter and the school room furnishings were answered by this teacher, Mr. C. Thompson. He replied to questions about his education and stated that he intended to make teaching his profession and had taught for 30 months.

This, and other school census reports, may be seen at the State Archives in Lansing, Michigan.

According to papers found in the Washtenaw Intermediate School District (Michigan) box at Bentley Historical Library in Ann Arbor, this school was called Rogers Corners School and was located on Waters Road, just east of Fletcher Road in Section 9 of Freedom Township. A very detailed history of the school is found in these papers. The list of teachers from 1839 to 1940 includes Charles Thompson in 1884-5. Some of the students of 1885 appear later in the list of teachers.

School Census, 1885

The age of the pupil follows the name. The second number indicates days of attendance. The column for Deportment was not completed.
